Module Breakdown

BEFORE YOU BEGIN

See the Money First

Real income proof before a single lesson is taught

Before any lessons begin, you'll see a real ad revenue dashboard — actual numbers, real dates. You'll understand exactly how money flows from Pinterest to your bank account before you build a single thing.

- Live ad revenue dashboard walkthrough
- The income chain explained simply: pin → visit → ad → payment
- A realistic look at first-month income expectations
- Confirmation: everything you need is completely free

✓ What you'll have after this module

You know this works. You understand exactly how money gets from Pinterest to your pocket — and you're ready to build.

MODULE 1

Understand the Money Model

Know exactly how you'll earn before you build anything

Most courses jump straight into tactics. This module gives you the full picture first — so every lesson after this feels like building toward real money, not just following instructions.

#	Lesson	Note
1.2	How ad networks pay you — RPM explained in plain language
1.3	Why Pinterest is the traffic source: free, visual, and evergreen
1.4	What a realistic income timeline looks like
1.5	The only three things that make you money: traffic, content, ads
1.6	Choosing your niche — which topics earn the most in ad revenue

✓ What you'll have after this module

You finish Module 1 with complete clarity on how Pinterest traffic turns into real income. You're motivated and ready to build.

MODULE 2

Build Your Free Website

Your money machine — built using Claude AI, GitHub & Vercel. Cost: $0

You don't need to pay a developer. You don't need hosting fees or a domain. This module walks you through building and publishing a real website using free tools anyone can access — including a full video walkthrough.
